The Jewish Annotated New Testament

New Revised Standard Version

Amy-Jill Levine
11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood self-condemned; 12 for until certain people came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But after they came, he drew back and kept himself separate for fear of the circumcision faction. 13 And the other Jews joined him in this hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. 14 But when I saw that they were not acting consistently with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?"
EBIONITES: CHRISTIANS WHO WOULD BE JEWS

- Tertullian: founder was “Ebion” [probably legend]... widely used by proto-orthodox as if one group, but quite possibly many groups with different views/theologies/practices, etc.

- Origen: from Hebrew ebyon (“poor”) [more likely: b/c accepted the early Christian policy of giving away their possessions for others and so took on lives of voluntary poverty.]

- Self-understanding: Jewish followers of Jesus

- Apostolic tradition: through Peter and James

- Canon: kept OT, rejected Paul, loved Matthew
THE (3?) “JEWISH-CHRISTIAN” GOSPELS

CASE STUDY

Background: In each Synoptic Gospel, the heavenly voice at Jesus’ baptism says different things.

- Matthew: “This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased”;
- Mark: “You are my beloved son, with you I am well pleased”
- Luke: “You are my son, today I have begotten you.”

So...both early (and modern) Christians wondered: what did the voice really say? Which version is right?
GOSPEL OF THE EBIONITES

- 7-8 quotations total.
- Found only in Epiphanius (late 4th-century church father)
- Epiphanius known for his 80-book refutation of every heresy of which he was aware. Called the Panarion (“medicine chest”) because he provides the antidote for the bites of the serpents of heresy
- heresiologist (“heresy-hunter”).
- Lost Christianity: How long was the GoE? What else did it say? What was it’s theological slant? Etc, etc., etc.
And after a good deal more, [The Gospel of the Ebionites] says: “When the people were baptized, Jesus also came and was baptized by John. When he came up out of the water, the heavens opened and he saw the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove, descending and entering him. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my beloved Son, in you I am well pleased.’ Then it said, ‘Today I have given you birth.’ Immediately a great light enlightened the place. When John saw this,” it says, “he said to him, Who are you Lord?” Yet again a voice came from heaven to him, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’ And then,” it says, “John fell before him and said, ‘I beg you, Lord — you baptize me!’ But Jesus restrained him by saying, ‘Let it be, for it is fitting that all things be fulfilled in this way.’” (Epiphanius, Panarion, 30, 13, 3-4)
Harmonies...ancient and modern

Diatessaron (c 160–175) by Tatian

Respect integrity of the biblical authors? And of ancient canon? (Or imposing own need for harmony?)
“And so John was baptizing, and Pharisees came out to him and were baptized, as was all of Jerusalem. John wore a garment of camel hair and a leather belt around his waist; and his food was wild honey that tasted like manna, like a cake cooked in olive oil.” (Epiphanius, Panarion, 30, 13, 4-5)

- Not “locusts and honey” . . . but “pancake”?!

- Greek: locusts = ΑΚΡΙΔΕΣ; pancake = ΕΓΚΡΙΔΕΣ

[Locusts were both kosher and eaten in antiquity]
Epiphanius: “They have changed the saying by abandoning its true sequence, as is clear to everyone who considers the combination of the words. For they had the disciples say, ‘Where do you want us make preparations for you to eat the Passover lamb?’: And they made him respond, ‘I have no desire to eat the meat of this Passover lamb with you.’” (Epiphanius, Panarion, 30, 22, 4).

Anti-Jewish OR Anti-meat? (Projecting later views onto Jesus and John) [c.f. Jesus in Mark 7: “All foods clean” vs. Peter’s vision and later debates]

Some ancient Jews were vegetarians to ensure kosher (vs. accidentally eating unkosher meat)
And, as found in their Gospel, they say that when he came he taught, ‘I have come to destroy the sacrifices. And if you do not stop making sacrifice, God’s wrath will not stop afflicting you.’” (Epiphanius, Panarion, 30, 16, 4-5).

Why would Jewish Christians intent on keeping the Jewish law insist that Jewish sacrifices be stopped?

Book of Hebrews: Jesus was the perfect, final sacrifice (no more needed) . . . but this would be Jesus himself saying it.

Thus, was 70CE destruction of Temple part of God’s plan?

Circumcision/Sabbath/kosher foods, etc., BUT against others who didn’t recognizing the alterations in the religion that (they believed) the Jewish messiah, Jesus, had brought???
Answer?

We can only speculated based on these 7-8 quotes

MARCIONITES: REJECT ALL THINGS JEWISH

- Contemporaries of Ebionites (less “disincentives”)
- Docetic (Jesus only “seemed” human)
- Loved Paul (Romans 8:3, “For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh.”)

THE FIRST NEW TESTAMENT: MARCION’S SCRIPTURAL CANON

- Earliest version of the New Testament, now in English for the first time.
- History preserves the name of the person responsible for the first New Testament, the circumstances surrounding his work, and even the date he decided to build a textual foundation for his fledgling Christian community.
- Marcion, like his father before him, was a bishop. He came from Sinope in Asia Minor and was active in Rome from about 125-150.

2013
Marcion proposed a theology that contrasted a God of love with the Hebrew God of judgment.

 Rejecting the old Jewish testament, he constructed a canon of Christian writings that consisted of a single gospel and an edited version of the letters of Paul.

 For his understanding of God and rejection of the Hebrew scriptures, Marcion was eventually expelled from Rome and returned to Asia Minor.

 But his church survived and thrived for several centuries.
CHAPTER 6

“Christians ‘In the Know’: Worlds of Early Christian Gnosticism”

No form of lost Christianity has so intrigued modern readers and befuddled modern scholars as early Christian Gnosticism…. There was no Jesus of the stained glass window here, nor a Jesus of the creeds—not even a Jesus of the New Testament. (113)
